Payment and Attendance

Lessons are taught weekly at a specific time agreed upon at the beginning of each month.

The monthly fee for attending lessons at Julien's Guitar Studio is:

- $300/month for a weekly 30-minutes lesson
- $450/month for a weekly 45-minutes lesson
- $600/month for a weekly 1-hour lesson

Payment is due on the first day of each month. The monthly fee remains a flat rate, regardless of whether the month has four (4) or five (5) weeks. During a 5-week month, students will receive five (5) lessons for the same price, compensating for any lessons potentially missed by the student over time. Missed lessons by students are not refundable and cannot be rescheduled, except when a date and time within the same week are agreed upon in advance.

The teacher guarantees that the student will receive at least four (4) lessons per month. If the student receives three (3) or fewer lessons in the month due to the teacher's unavailability or sickness, the student will receive credit toward the next payment at a rate of $150 per hour.

If the student is late, lesson time will not be extended.

If the student decides to stop taking lessons, they must inform the teacher thirty (30) days in advance, and all remaining lessons during that thirty-day period are due. In the case of an incomplete last month of lessons (three (3) or fewer lessons), the student agrees to pay the teacher at a rate of $150 per hour.

A student who refers the teacher to another client will be given a $50 credit toward the next monthly payment.

I have read, understand, and agree to adhere to the policy stated above.
